

Book “Report”

Choose one “report” to do when you finish reading your independent book. This report must be completed one week after finishing your book.

Write a 20-line poem or rap song about this book. Talk about the characters, the setting, the problem/conflict, and the resolution.

Summarize the book until the end. Then, rewrite the ending of the book. Afterward, explain why this would be a better ending.

Choose three (3) key events that took place in this story. Then, write about how the story would have changed if these three events occurred in different places (settings).

Make a poster or a model of the critical moment in the book (climax). Then, describe your picture/model in two (2) paragraphs.

Evaluate if you were the character in the story, what would you have done differently? Choose three actions you would change.

Create a comic strip depicting the book. You can draw the comic strips or use appropriate comics from the newspaper and insert dialogue from the book.

Evaluate which character could be eliminated from the book. Why could they be eliminated? How would the book change if they were?

Compare the title with the events of the story. Is this an appropriate title? Explain. Then, rename the book, and explain why your title is also appropriate.

Compare the main character’s personality in the beginning and the end of the book. Use a Venn Diagram. Then, describe what conflicts or event caused this person to change.
